

Perfect Ballers Association (PBA) Basketball League Rules and Regulations

PBA Basketball League Registration Rules

- Each team must have no more than 10 and no fewer than 5 registered players.
- PBA-registered players are only allowed to play for one team and cannot be part of multiple teams simultaneously.
- PBA-registered players are not allowed to transfer to another team without league approval.
- All participating players must wear PBA-customized jerseys during matches.
- Players under the age of 15 must have their registration and communication handled by their guardians.
- Each team may have one sideline coach, but the coach is not allowed to participate in the game.
- If a team has a sideline coach, the coach's personal information must be submitted to the PBA league team after registration.
- If a team member sustains a severe injury that prevents them from continuing the season, the team captain may replace them with a new player without additional registration fees. However, the new player must complete registration and purchase a PBA-customized jersey.
- After the regular season ends, teams are not allowed to add new players for subsequent matches.
- If a team has fewer than six players available for a match, they may temporarily recruit players to reach six.
- Additional players must meet PBA registration requirements.
- Players who join mid-season must participate in at least five regular-season games to be eligible for the playoffs.

PBA Basketball League Code of Conduct and Penalty Regulations

- All participating players and coaches should respect one another and uphold a positive and healthy competitive spirit.
- Players and coaches must respect PBA referees and league staff.
- The conduct of a team's coach on the court represents the entire team.
- If a team, player, or coach engages in unsportsmanlike behavior such as abusing referees or engaging in physical altercations, the PBA league team will intervene and impose penalties.
- Any player ejected from a match will automatically receive a one-game suspension.
- A player accumulating three technical fouls will be suspended for one game.
- If a team is suspended during the regular season, the matches during the suspension period will be considered forfeited and will be counted in the rankings.
- All players must carefully read and strictly adhere to all PBA basketball league rules and regulations.

PBA Emergency Medical Policy

- In case of severe injury, PBA staff will contact emergency services based on the player's request or actual needs.
- Each team should prepare its own first aid kit (e.g., band-aids, bandages) to handle minor injuries.
- The PBA league provides public liability insurance for players. Any injuries or emergencies must be reported immediately to the PBA league team and venue management.
- The PBA league strongly recommends that players purchase private health insurance and ambulance insurance.
- For more details on PBA insurance coverage, please contact the league team via email or WeChat.

PBA League Match Rules

- Each game consists of two halves, each lasting 20 minutes.
- Warm-up time before the match is 2 minutes, and halftime break is 2 minutes.
- Each team is allowed one timeout per half.
- The game clock stops during the last two minutes of the match.
- If a team leads by 20 points or more, the clock will not stop in the last two minutes, and timeouts will not be allowed.
- A player who accumulates five fouls or two technical fouls will be disqualified from the game.
- If a team does not wear proper uniforms, they will start the game with a 10-point penalty (replacement players must wear a jersey matching the team's color). (This rule takes effect from the third week and applies only to new teams).
- Uniform Requirements: All players must wear a complete matching team uniform (jersey and shorts) when participating. Accessories such as jewelry, watches, and hats are not allowed. Players violating the uniform rule will not be allowed to participate unless they wear a temporary jersey in the team's color with a number. A 10-point penalty will apply if a player violates the dress code on the court.

Scoring System:

- Win: 3 points
- Draw: 2 points
- Loss: 1 point
(Points are used for rankings)
- If a team has two byes, the second bye will automatically grant them 2 points.

Playoff Qualification Rules:

- The top six teams in each division qualify for the playoffs.
- The top two teams in each division automatically advance to the semifinals.
- At least four players must be present for each match; otherwise, the team will be considered late.
- Matches will start on time according to the schedule.
- If a team does not have enough players at the start, they will be penalized 3 points per minute.

Perfect Ballers Association

